

Brandywine Division of NASW-PA Presents:

PROJECT DAWN (3 CEs)

Play and Panel Discussion on Sexual Exploitation

WORLD PREMIERE Philadelphia is home to a revolutionary court designed by a passionate and shockingly funny group of women. Every day these lawyers, judges, parole officers, and staff work to transform the lives of women repeatedly convicted for prostitution. In this daring and vital new play in which seven actresses portray multiple participants and members of the court, Karen Hartman probes the thin lines between freedom and slavery, activism and obsession for women on both sides of the law. Inspired by Hartman's extensive first-hand research inside Project Dawn Court, this play is the first world premiere from our nationally renowned New Play Frontiers Residency & Commission program at People's Light.

Panel Discussion by:

Shea M. Rhodes, Esquire - Director and Co-Founder Villanova Law Institute to Address Commercial Sexual Exploitation-She is a former Philadelphia Assistant District Attorney and was part of the team that created the court - Project Dawn.

Sarah K Robinson, Esquire - Justice for Victims Fellow at Villanova Law Institute to Address Commercial Sexual Exploitation

Jamie Manirakiza, MSW - Director of Anti Trafficking and Social Services, The Salvation Army
