Get Continuing Nursing Education Contact Hours!

Available for all nurses! 2.5 accredited contact hours will be awarded to all nurses that attend the play Project Dawn at People's Light. After the play, an additional 0.5 contact hours may be awarded to nurses that attend Nursing Insights, a facilitated post-performance discussion. All nurses can receive up to 3.0 contact hours by attending Project Dawn with Nursing Insights after session.

This activity has been submitted to Pennsylvania State Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. Pennsylvania State Nurses Association is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Nursing Insights facilitated by Michael J. Schwien, BS, BSN, RN; Steven Donahue, MS, BSN, RN; Danielle LaVallee, BSN, RN; Lankenau Medical Center; and Main Line Health Systems

Learning Objectives:

At the end of the theatrical performance of Project Dawn the participant should be able to:

1. Discuss benefits and drawbacks to problem-solving courts for victims of commercial sexual exploitation (CSE).
2. Describe different conflicts victims experience while attempting transition out of the life of CSE.

At the end of "Nursing Insights" the participants should be able to:

1. Define human trafficking
2. Recognize the signs of human trafficking in a hospital setting including clinical markers.
3. Recall guidelines for helping victims in a hospital setting.
4. Name referral options for victims of trafficking.

Successful completion of activity is obtained by attending Project Dawn at 2.5 contact hours, with an additional 0.5 contact hour if attending Nursing Insights, and submitting a completed evaluation form.

Contact hours only available for the 7:30pm performances Fri 6/16, Tues 6/20, Fri 6/30, & Fri 7/7

ABOUT THE PLAY

Philadelphia is home to a revolutionary court designed by a passionate and shockingly funny group of women. Every day these lawyers, judges, parole officers, and staff work to transform the lives of women repeatedly convicted for prostitution. In this daring and vital new play in which seven actresses portray multiple participants and members of the court, Karen Hartman probes the thin lines between freedom and slavery, activism and obsession for women on both sides of the law.

Commercial support provided by PECO. PECO will not produce, market, resell, or distribute healthcare goods or services consumed by or used on patients.
